Uncertainties and Insecurities

A series of three lectures which seeks to explore and explain the sources and forms of uncertainty in key aspects of contemporary life.

Across a range of public and private arenas, there is a loss of confidence, a sense of insecurity, a decline of trust, and a generalised uncertainty about the direction in which society is travelling. The lectures look successively at this uncertainty in health, in politics and in the media.

Monday 22 February
WHAT'S ALL THE FUSS ABOUT? WHEN INDIVIDUAL RISKS MEET POLICY UNCERTAINTIES IN HEALTH
David Spiegelhalter, Winton Professor of the Public Understanding of Risk, University of Cambridge
In association with the Oxford Local Group of the Royal Statistical Society

Monday 8 March
LECTURE TITLE TO BE CONFIRMED
Dame Helena Kennedy, leading barrister and expert in human rights law

Monday 15 March
TRUSTING THE NEWS
Stephen Coleman, Professor of Political Communication, Institute of Communication Studies, University of Leeds

Please note that a lecture originally scheduled for 1 March by Gillian Tett has been cancelled.

All lectures take place at 6pm
EP Abraham Lecture Theatre
Green Templeton College
Woodstock Road
Oxford OX2 6HG

For more information visit:
www.gtc.ox.ac.uk

Further enquiries:
Events and Activities Manager:
01865 284547

There is a College dinner after the lecture for GTC Fellows and students only.
Please sign up at the Lodge.